HOME OF A. M. LINDSAY, NEAR ORMOND, SAID TO HAVE BEEN ROBBED OF VALUABLE JEWELS

ROBBER SAID TO HAVE MADE BIG HAUL AND A GETAWAY WITH FAMILY AT DINNER

NEWS HAS BEEN KEPT FROM PUBLIC WHILE BURNS DETECTIVES HAVE BEEN WORKING ON THE CASE.

Gaining an entrance while the members of the family and guests were at dinner, a bold robber ran- sacked the rooms on the second floor of the new winter home of A. M. Lindsay of Rochester, N. Y., near Ormond last week Thursday night and made a getaway with diamonds and jewelry valued between $3,000 and $4,000.

In spite of the fact the robbery was committed a week ago the news of the loss has been kept away from the public while private detectives have been quietly working on the case, following up clues to the perpetrator of the deed.

The Lindsay home is the big, beautiful new house just completed beside the John Anderson highway a short distance north of the Ormond hotel. Mr. Lindsay is a member of the firm of S. B. Lindsay & Kerr, owning the largest department store in Rochester.

Part of the jewelry stolen was the property of members of the Lindsay family, it is said, and part of it be- longed to guests in the house.

Immediately after the robbery it is said Mr. Lindsay engaged two Burns detectives to come here to work on the case, locate the robber and recover the missing jewelry. The detectives are said to have been working here quietly for several days, but up to this time no arrests in the case have been made.

This is the first house robbery of any consequence in this vicinity this season.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN, Food Specialist

CURE LIES OFTEN IN DIET.

Dr. Alexander Haig, known the world over as the leading authority on uric acid, says: "Practices have been and will be tried, but for a cure the world has looked far and wide, whilst in my opinion it has been a simpler matter and has lain all the time at our gates. . . . Diet has caused the mental and physical diseases which now baffle the scientific man and the moralist alike." ("Food and Diet," 1904.)—Dr. Haig, after practicing regular medicine for many years, found his health impaired and cured himself by a course of diet, the result of a series of experiments; establishing scientifically that flesh is the most wasteful of foods, physiologically speaking.

In no case is diet the only remedy to be considered; but unlike surgery, drugs, electricity, and other means of cure which are often of vital importance, diet (which includes fasting), like suggestion, is always "indicated." And whatever danger there may be in misapplied surgery or drugs, food can do no harm when taken moderately, except in a few cases, as diabetes, where expert knowledge is required.

Cannibal Fishes and Humans People.
While as a measure of economy the great majority of all the fishes and other creatures at the Aquarium are fed on dead food, such as cut up fish, or, as in the case of some of the larger ones, small dead fish whole, there are some fishes which if they are to be kept alive or in condition must have live food such as they would find in nature.

In their free state all fishes are cannibals. This is the way of nature. But among the visitors at the Aquarium there are people who consider the placing of live little fishes in the tanks to be devoured by bigger fish as cruel and in deference to this feeling the fishes that must be supplied with live food are fed before the Aquarium is opened in the morning and after it is closed at night.

The Best of Life.

While of life itself or of its origin or destiny we know but little, we do know how we may have it abundantly and make the most and best of it. If we do that, not only shall we have done our entire duty, but we shall have given ourselves the highest present employment of which we are capable, and we may be certain that if there be a future for us beyond these scenes of earth, such a life is the best preparation for it.—The Cincinnati Enquirer.

Between Girls.

"I haven't received a love letter from Jack in three days. I think it's a shame. I shall be positively ill unless I get a love letter by tomorrow." "Well, my dear," said the other girl, "if you need a love letter from Jack as badly as that, I have 40 or 50 I'll be glad to let you have."

Happiness.

Those who have the most of happiness think the least about it. But in thinking about and in doing their duty happiness comes—because the heart and mind are occupied with earnest thought that touches at a thousand points the beautiful and sublime realities of the universe.—Thackeray.

Cultivate Sense of Humor.

A sense of humor is certainly the salt of life, either of the married variety or the plain, single existence. It certainly helps a wife to laugh off many a little bruise that otherwise would grow into a festering sore. To see the funny side of many of the trivial annoyances of life at the time they happen certainly eases the situation.

Element of Success.

He that can heroically endure adversity will bear prosperity with equanimity of soul, for the mind cannot be deflected by the former, nor likely to be transported with the latter.—Fielding.

Where "Yiddish" Comes From.
The Hebrews who live in Germany speak the German language, while among themselves a peculiar dialect called "Yiddish," that term being a self corrupt form of the German word Yiddish. Russian Hebrews also use this language, while by a curious chain of historic events Turkish Hebrews speak Spanish. Printed Yiddish shows an interesting combination of languages, the words being essentially German, but printed in Hebrew characters.—Christian Herald.

RAW PRUNES AS LAXATIVE.

Raw prunes are recommended by the author of the "Preston Papers," in "Life and Health," as a remedy for constipation. An evening meal may well be made of prunes alone, or with figs, which are also laxative. If prunes are fresh they need no cooking. They should be washed and soaked for 12 hours. The skins should be excluded. The California sweet prune is the best, requiring no added sugar. A gentleman in Illinois has eaten prunes only for supper for more than three years, taking the proteid meal, wheat bread and nuts, at noon, and he has had perfect health during that time.

Royal Letters Prized.

Royal letter writers may expect that, in the vicissitudes of the centuries, their popularity will come to the test of that democratic implement, the auctioneer's hammer. Judged by this standard, King Edward III. and Queen Elizabeth have no reason to feel slighted. In London the other day one of the king's letters sold for $1,450, and a letter from Queen Elizabeth to Henry III. of France brought $1,225.

Merely Moral Effect.

"Some of these reformers," said Uncle Rastus, "makes me think of 'Rastus Pinkley's dog.' I says to 'im, 'Rastus,' I says, 'is dat dog good foh rats?' An' he says, 'No; he's mighty bad foh rats.' Does he ketch 'em an' kill 'em?' 'No,' says 'Rastus,' 'he don't ketch 'em, ner he don't kill 'em. But if they comes foolin' around him he'll mighty near skeer 'em to death.'—Washington Star.

Pad With Papers.

When one does not happen to have an old blanket, which is usually used as a padding for the ironing board, a lot of old newspapers will be found to be an excellent substitute. Lay them smoothly on the board until you have the required thickness; then cover with a piece of cotton. The papers can be renewed from time to time and you always have a clean, smooth board.

Feline Wisdom.

"If a man could only fall like a cat and land on his feet every time, this world would be a happier place." "No doubt; but if a man wouldn't take so many more chances than a cat does he wouldn't fall so often."

Too Formal.
 "Are you on friendly terms with your neighbor in the apartments?" "Well, no. She's rather formal. Always sends her card when she wishes to borrow flour, and if she wants both flour and sugar she sends two cards."

Good Object Lesson.
 The pupils of a Cleveland (Ohio) school have taken part in a dramatic sketch before the moving picture camera, and their youthful figures and the lesson they teach will soon be known throughout the land. For it is a lesson that they are teaching—the lesson of the importance of the care of the teeth.

Nautical Distinctions.
 "How do you tell the difference between a yacht and a sailboat?" said the girl with the inquiring mind. "By lookin' into the pantry," replied Captain Cleet. "If she carries plenty of refreshments and seagars, she's a yacht. If it's mostly plain victuals, she's a sailboat."—Exchange.

Dreams Worth Holding.

"HONEY BOY" EVANS MAKES HIT WITH A BIG AUDIENCE

MINSTREL SHOW GIVEN AT NEW DAYTONA THEATER WAS BEST THING OF ITS KIND EVER SEEN HERE.

"Honey Boy" Evans and his minstrels made a decided hit with the audience at the New Daytona theater Wednesday night. The house was packed and the enthusiastic reception accorded the black faced artists was a deserved appreciation of the best minstrel show ever brought to Daytona.

When the curtain rose the stage presented a scene which was only a foretaste of what was to come. The 35 artists were grouped in minstrel style with an unusually attractive stage setting. The music furnished by their own orchestra was splendid, especially in the accompaniments and the songs sung during the first part included a number of popular, catchy airs.

"Honey Boy" Evans in his "Merry Monologue Moments" captivated the big audience with his local hits and his parodies on the songs that had been sung, keeping the people in a perfect uproar. Evans has an excellent voice and uses it well.

The finale, the "high falutin'" reception of "De Go Lightly Guards," was an original production by Evans in which he uses his artist material to good advantage and makes for himself a place which shows his versatile minstrel ability.

Bishop Not Qualified.
 Comments by the bishop of London
 (Dr. Ingram) on the falling birth-rate were quoted by counsel in a case in the Clerkenwell county court, when Judge Cluer remarked: "What has the bishop to do with it? He is not married. Example is better than precept."

Beauty of the Drama.
 I think I love and reverence all arts equally, only putting my own just above the others; because in it I recognize the union and culmination of my own. To me it seems as if when God conceived the world, that was poetry; he formed it, and that was Scripture; he colored it, and that was painting; he peopled it with living beings, and that was the grand, divine, eternal drama.—Charlotte Cushman.

Olive Trees Centuries Old.
 Olive trees of Syria live to a great years old, are still in a flourishing condition and likely to bear fruit for many years to come.

DEPUTY SHERIFF JONES HAS BEEN BUSY AROUND ORMOND

MRS. FRED SCHMIDT, WHITE, IS CHARGED WITH THEFT OF RINGS, BOUND OVER TO THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Jones has been busy looking after transgressors of the laws at Ormond during the past few days.

Early in the week he arrested
 Henry Coleman and Lulu Hampson, charged with lewd and lascivious cohabitation.

John Riley and Ben Clifton, white, both of Daytona, were arrested in Ormond on the charge of fishing with a gill net.

Another important arrest was that of Mrs. Fred Schmidt, a white woman, who is charged with having stolen property in her possession.
 The allegation is made that while Mrs. Schmidt was working at the town of Volusia several months ago she appropriated two rings. The officers worked on the case for some time and Deputy Sheriff Jones finally located the rings in the possession of persons to whom Mrs.
 Schmidt is alleged to have sold them. She was unable to furnish bond after the preliminary before Justice McNary at Ormond and was committed to jail to await trial before the next term of the criminal court at DeLand.

Hunters Born, Not Made.

A hunter is born, not made. Unless a man has the love of the chase bred in his blood he's not going to get any blue ribbons pinned on him for sportsmanship. Some men take to the trail as naturally as a duck beats it to the puddle after cracking the eggshell. Then there are others who never seem to learn the game—they think they like to hunt but when you get them into the tall and unlumbered, they prove to be misfits who are eternally doing the wrong thing at the inopportune time.—National Sportsman.

PORT ORANGE, March 19 — Mrs.

 Mrs. F. O. Sparkman entertained the Good Times club last week.

The McGinnis and Eldridge party returned Saturday from their annual cruise down the coast in Mr. Mc-Ginnis' yacht.

D. E. Lyon received a car of lumber for Mr. Calef's house Saturday.
 W. V. Carter went to Hastings and Palatka Saturday morning.

We had an election Saturday evening to determine whether Port Orange should be incorporated or not. The votes cast were 27 in favor of incorporating and three against it.
 Then the meeting proceeded to elect town officers. Dr. H. K. DuBois was elected mayor; A. M. Martin, clerk;
 I. J. Wells, Jr., marshal; J. L.
 Bailey, D. E. Lyon, J. B. Case, J.
 L. Pattillo, S. G. Martin, councilmen.
 There will be a food sale Saturday evening in Ridgewood hall.

The Cemetery association will give an entertainment in Ridgewood hall Monday evening, March 24, for the benefit of the cemetery.

The meeting of the Port Orange Literary and Library association,
 March 13, in charge of Mrs. F. W.
 Roe, was of special interest.

The first number on the program
 "Alpine Violets," a duet, was deligh-tfully rendered by Mrs. Howes and Mrs. Needham, after which Mrs.
 Howes played the march "The Rifle Regiment" composed by Prof. John Phillips Sousa for Col. Roe and dedicated to the officers and enlisted men of the Third U. S. Infantry.

Mrs. Roe's subject, "In the Rockies" was handled with the skill which came from 12 years' experience with the regular army in Montana, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah.

She spoke vividly of life in the mountains—of crossing divides, going through canyons and gulches; of a trestle in the Bitter Root Mountain that is 226 feet high, the second highest in the world—of Sweet Pea carnivals in Bozeman, Montana, of the average altitude of Yellowstone Park, which is one-half mile higher than Mt. Washington.

She took us up Pike's Peak, then to the grave of the charming authoress "H. H."—Helen Hunt Jackson—far up the side of Sycamore Mountain. Here Mrs. Needham read with much expression, a poem, "Twin Lakes," by H. H.

Mrs. Roe next took us through Clear Creek Canyon and she also took us up the rugged mountain side by precipices, over crevasses, to a lake whose altitude, 10,500 feet, is just below timber line where the only living things are black squirrels.

Altogether the talk was charming and the audience listened with breathless attention.

During the afternoon Mrs. Stover played a beautiful selection and Mrs.
 Corey sang very sweetly the solo,
 "Last Night."

Mrs. Howes closed the meeting appropriately by playing "The Storm," in her usual brilliant style.

ALLANDALE AUCTION SALE IS PROGRESSING FINELY

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT SALE YESTERDAY AND MANY LOTS PURCHASED AND HANDSOME
 PRESENTS DISTRIBUTED.

Notwithstanding the fact that extremely bad weather had necessitated the postponement of the auction sale of lots at Allandale from Monday until yesterday, many people took advantage of the bright weather prevailing yesterday and attended the auction. The boats Uncle Sam and Cherokee which were engaged to carry people from this city to the scene of the new town site were not only crowded, but the automobiles also used for that purpose were obliged to make return trips for the overflow.

About 50 lots are reported to have been sold yesterday, the prices ranging from $50 for inside lots to $187.50 for those on the river front.
 Several lots valued at $50 and $75 were given away to those attending the sale and some of the people who received them had not purchased property. One of these was a corner lot and the lot on the opposite corner sold for $75. The corner lots are 44x100 and the inside lots 33x100 feet in dimensions.

Allandale, which adjoins the town of Port Orange on the south and has a frontage on the beautiful Hal-lax river, is destined to become a popular and thriving place as it has both beauty of location and advantages of transportation by rail or water. The Florida East Coast railway runs through the tract from north to south and the Halifax river provides means of transportation by water.

The auction sale of lots in Allandale, which is being conducted by James L. Elwell of New York, will be continued throughout this week, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Daily News, and with continued good weather many lots will be sold for building purposes and for investment.

Celebrated Armorers.

In olden times the armorers' work was not of a rough and ready description, but generally bore the signs of highly wrought workmanship. The various pieces of a suit fit into their positions to a nicety, there are no rough edges, and as a rule very little that is merely careless decorative work. Fashion and reputation have left their hall mark on the armor of each period, and like most other industries it had its distinguished masters. The name of Jacob Topf is, for example, still famous in England, and such names as those of Lorenzo Colman of Augsburg, a German armorer of the sixteenth century, Lucio Pincino, a Milanese, and the Wolfs of Landshut, a family of armorers that are supposed to have worked for Philip II. of Spain, are celebrated in their own countries.

One of the first characteristics necessary to a woman that she may hand on her influence is that she shall be willing and glad to be herself.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Commodore C. G. Burgoyne entertained between 25 and 30 of the business and professional men of Daytona at his North Beach street home Wednesday evening, the affair being a deferred celebration of St.
 Patrick's day, evidenced by the decorations and the production of the "Wearin' of the Green," and other Irish melodies.

The Saracina band was present and played a number of excellent pieces interspersed with choice selections from the commodore's pipe organ, piano, Columbia grand and Victrola.

During the musical program, the smokers of the party enjoyed the added solace of the food and at its conclusion all partook of a most inviting repast which was in waiting on tables previously arranged in the newer extension of Commodore Burgoyne's screened porch room. The members of the band were also regaled at the same time and following the enjoyment of the refreshments there was more music until about 10:30 when the guests took their departure, bidding their host good night with many expressions of their enjoyment of the occasion.

Family Groups.

I know some people who have been indulging in a family group. Which is all right, if they feel that way about it. But where are they going to keep it? I have one down cellar and another under the bed and a third in storage. There was a mistake made in the order, so we each got three pieces. Any one has a right to be in a family group, but no one has a right to show it to his friends—Exchange.

Retort Imperative.

Fenelon had repeatedly boned Richelieu for subscriptions to various charitable schemes and the cardinal always refused to loosen up. One day Fenelon was telling him that he had been looking at his (Richelieu's) new picture. "Did you ask it for a subscription?" inquired the cardinal.
 "No; I saw there was no chance," replied Fenelon; "it looked so much like you."

Lightning's Strange Freaks.

Lightning has imprinted pictures on tree trunks and dried leaves, and it is asserted that the silhouette of a man killed by lightning was fixed on a whitewashed wall near the spot where he was killed. What are the secrets of lightning by which it is able to do these things?

Uplifting Power of the Press.

"It (the press) lifts us out of the local rut and gives us the broader spirit and intelligence of common citizens of a great country. Still further, it extends our sympathies beyond natural bounds and gives us the feeling of human solidarity."—Dr. Albert Shaw.

What He Didn't Understand.

"Yes," says the cousin from the east, who is being shown over the irrigated ranch, "but there is one thing that puzzles me. How do you get the water away up here?" "We bring it down from the mountain in those flumes," explains the western cousin.
 "I see all that plainly enough, but how in the dickens do you pump it up to the top of the mountain?"

STATE HAPPENINGS

News from Various Florida Cities Briefly Told

The building boom continues unabated at Fort Myers.

The 12th annual meeting of the Florida Audubon society will be held at Maitland the 25th of this month.

The Bronson Times-Democrat says: "Orange groves throughout the county are heavy with bloom, giving promise of the largest crop in 18 years."

Miss Caroline M. Brevard, of Tallahassee, is agitating the establishment of a Florida hall of history. She says this cannot be attained at once, but a beginning can be made.

The Osceola Journal says: "Kissimmee may never be the capital of the United States, but she has an excellent chance of becoming the center of South Florida activities. Geographically and financially she is destined to lead."

More than 100,000 acres of timber land is involved in a deal whereby Fletchell & Carpenter, Louisiana sawmill men, purchased land at the east end of St. Andrews bay. The land is valued at a million and a half dollars.

Papers have been signed conveying famous Lawrence park, on the river, with a beautiful grove, the tract containing something like 30 acres, to Messrs. Howard Humphreys of Bloomington, Ill., and C. M. Rich, of Keokuk, Iowa, who will improve the property and build elegant winter homes upon it. The consideration for the sale was $65,000, marking one of the largest single real estate deals in weeks.—Miami Metropolis.

Demands by the women of Miami for the return of the $6,000 raised at the bazaar a year ago for hospital purposes and the refusal of the trustees of the fund to return the

SWALLOWS ARE VERY BOLD

One Builds Nest in a House and Another Establishes Home on Electric Light Lamp.

A very curious instance of boldness in swallows was recorded in 1886 from Ceylon. In this case the birds built over a lamp in the dining room; what made their choice of site more remarkable was the fact that the lamp could be raised or lowered by counter weights and the connecting chains actually passed through the mud walls of the nest.

Occasionally the bird selects a nesting site which invites comparison with the boldness of the robin. In July last a pair of swallows took advantage of the open window of an unoccupied bedroom in a house at Felmersham in Bedfordshire to begin building their nest on the curtain rod of the bed.

The return of the owner of the house and his occupation of the bed did not in the least disturb or alarm the birds, which completed the nest and brought off three nestlings within seven weeks of the house owner's return. They took no notice of the occupant of the bed when flying in and out of the window feeding their young; but the hen bird would fly off the nest if any one entered the room during the daytime.

Three years ago a pair of swallows built their nest on top of the shade of an electric lamp which hangs outside the asylum at Naborough, near Leicester.—Bally's Magazine.

Different Uses.

"What does this mean, Sam?" said Judge Brown to the prisoner, producing two razors, one a safety, the other a straight back. "Lordy, Judge, don't you all know? Dat safety am fur shaving, sah, but de udder am fur social p'poses entirely, sah."—Judge.

Telephones in Theaters.

On the back of each seat of a new London theater there will be coin in the slot telephones to enable persons with defective hearing to listen to what is being said on the stage.

money, the demands and refusals being accompanied by harsh words on the part of divers and sundry persons on each side, have culminated in a bitter controversy between the women and trustees with threats by the women of bringing suit for recovery of the fund.

In a dispute over the ownership of land at Black Hammock, ten miles south of Milton, in Santa Rosa county, Arch Lindsay, 67 years old, shot and killed his son, John Lindsay. Arch Lindsay was arrested by the sheriff shortly after the killing and is in jail at Milton. According to reports which reached Pensacola, John Lindsay was shot in the back with a Winchester rifle, while he was in the act of walking away from his father. He lived only a short while after the bullet struck him.

Joseph Brucker, an extensive manufacturer of Kiel, Germany, who has won much fame as an aeronaut in that country, is planning to cross the Atlantic ocean in a balloon, starting from Key West April 1, and landing on the Canary islands. He is expected to arrive here within a few days, now being on his way to Havana in one of the trans-Atlantic steamers, to complete arrangements for the trip. Mr. Brucker was formerly a Wisconsin man and Mrs. Brucker still resides in Milwaukee. She has received a letter from her husband about the proposed trip, and it is from her that the news has reached Key West. Mrs. Brucker says her husband will not use a dirigible, as has been used by former aspirants for the honor of being the first to cross the Atlantic via the "aerial route," but will use only an improved gas bag with no mechanical devices whatever.—Key West Journal.

Recipe for Success.

Keep your head cool—your feet warm—your mind busy. Don't worry over trifles. Plan your work ahead, then stick to it, rain or shine. Don't waste sympathy on yourself. If you are a gem, someone will find you. Don't whine. Tell people you are a failure and they will believe you. Talk and act like a winner, and in time you will become one.—Stephen Harte.

Egyptians Great Fish Eaters.

In the intestines of mummies of 3,000 to 4,000 B. C. have been found vegetable fibers, grain, bones and scales of fishes, and bones and teeth of rodents. Several Nile fishes were identified. One woman had eaten 20 different kinds of fish just before her death and a child had taken a dose of mice, an old remedy for children's diseases.

HIGHLY COLORED FUN.

Grotesque Sport That is a Part of the Holi Festival.

The curiously childish horseplay of the Holi festival, which is celebrated annually by the maharaja of Patiala, is described by Mrs. Charles Bertram in "A Magician in Many Lands." The author made the acquaintance of the famous Hindu ruler during a tour of India and was invited to remain over for the festival.

Early in the morning I went to the club, where I found many of the guests, who were taking part in the ceremony for the first time. We were provided with a complete new suit of Hindu garments, and our dresses were superintended by the maharaja's servants. We had camels, elephants and victorias provided for us. I was on an elephant in a kind of box, and we drove in procession to the palace in the native city.

We were received with great acclaim by the natives, and I was led to believe that it was to be decidedly a dignified occasion. But I was woefully mistaken. The fun had not begun. Certain formalities had to be gone through before the signal was given.

We took our seats in the courtyard of the palace at a long table that was loaded with large gilt dishes filled with different colored balls as large as oranges and filled with Holi powder. At a signal the brother of the maharaja came to the front of the table and saluted the prince, who took one of the balls and threw it gently across the table, striking the officer on the breast.

The ball broke and scattered the powder over his costume. Then there was a general scramble, and in less time than it takes to write hundreds of balls were flying about, their many colored contents scattered broadcast on the crowd. Next baskets of loose powder were thrown upon us in handfuls.

It was no use to expostulate. The moment you opened your mouth somebody filled it with powder. The battle grew fast and furious, when suddenly an enormous stream of water from a fire engine drenched everybody. The colored powders became wet and, mingling together, dyed us all in brilliantly variegated hues.

After this sort of thing had gone on for half an hour it ceased by mutual consent, and we returned to the private gardens of the maharaja, where we were most unceremoniously pitched into a tank of running water. I was dyed a deep scarlet all over my body, and it was fully a month before the color entirely disappeared from my face and hands.

She Knew the Symptoms.

There is a certain bright English actress who comes over here every year or two to play an engagement, says the Saturday Evening Post. Among her admirers on this side is a middle aged theatrical man of a serious turn of mind. He is courtly, but has been called tiresome in conversation. One afternoon at her suit in a New York hotel the sprightly lady was brewing a dish of tea for a couple of newspaper men. The telephone bell rang, and the hostess answered the call.

"Yes," she said, "this is Miss Blank. Who? Oh, Mr. Blink calling, is it? Then, in a tone of weary resignation, "Very well, send him right up." She hung up the receiver and turned to the newspaper men.

"Boys," she said, "you'll have to toddle away. My sick headache is coming on."

The Gold Lions of Peking.

Fronting the imperial palace at Peking are two beautifully carved lions of enormous size which, if we are to believe the mandarins, are of solid gold and have been there since time immemorial. When the combined armies of England and France advanced on Peking in 1860 the Chinese painted these statues gray in order to make the Europeans believe that they were of bronze and therefore to insure against their being melted. Later, during the Japanese war, these lions disappeared for a time, but at the conclusion of peace they reappeared in their original position. The value of these relics is said to be incalculable, and they are in native eyes a symbol of the unity of the empire.—Harper's.

Algebra.

The science of algebra is said to have been the invention of Mohammed of Buzana about 850 A. D. The science was introduced into Spain by the Moors. The first treatise on the subject in any European language is believed to have been that by Luca Pacoli in 1494. The first English algebra was written by Robert Recorde, teacher of mathematics at Cambridge, about 1557. He was the first to use the sign of equality.

Killing Time.

Perhaps the busiest time of the year in old colonial days was November, called "killing time." When the chosen day arrived oxen, cows and swine which had been fattened for the winter's stock were slaughtered early in the morning that the meat might be hard and cold before being put in the pickle. Sausages, rollies and head-cheese were made, lard tried out and tallow saved.

Changed.

"When my two girls were born I used to wonder what I was going to make of them."

"And now?"

"Now that they're grown up and in society I've begun wondering what they're going to make of me."—Detroit Free Press.

A contented spirit is the sweetness of existence.—Dickens.
